

Call for selecting experts to develop a best practices guide addressed to magistrates and other legal practitioners, consisting in legal instruments and procedures applicable in cross-border family mediation

Regarding the Call for selecting experts to develop a best practices guide addressed to magistrates and other legal practitioners, consisting in legal instruments and procedures applicable in cross-border family mediation, published by Craiova Court of Appeal, required for implementing the project “Judicial Intercultural Communication in Family Mediation”, contract no JUST/2013/JCIV/AG/4628, financed by the “Civil Justice” Programme of the European Union

Hereby, we inform you that after assessing the documents submitted by the candidates, there were selected the following experts, with the topics assigned according to the table below:

Nr crt	Name of expert	Assigned topic
1	Constantin-Adi Gavrilă	Topic no. 1 - Mediation and alternative dispute resolution in the European Union.
2	Christian-Radu Chereji	Topic no. 2 – Legal framework including: Directive 2008/52/EC, the Regulation (EC) 2201/2003 and their implementation into national legislation.
3	Alessandro Bruni	Topic no. 3 – Intercultural character of cross border mediation
4	Inka Miskulin	Topic no. 4 – Communication skills that are necessary to the magistrate and other legal practitioners in order to overcome difficulties that appeared in the process of recommendation of cross-border mediation
5	Adrian Pop	Topic no. 5 – Solving family cases through mediation and judicial proceedings

6	Sevdalina Aleksandrova	Topic no. 6 - The impact of judicial proceedings over the family, in general and over children, in particular.
7	Albena Komitova	Topic no. 7 - "Recommendation of mediation by a judge, application of Art. 5 from the Directive 2008/52/EC".

Mr Constantin-Adi Gavrilă has been appointed as coordinator of the Guidebook, according to the requirements specified in the published Notice for selecting experts.

Project funded by the "Civil Justice" Programme of the European Union